

WEST VIRGINIA CODE: §13-1-30

§13-1-30. Files and records to be kept by Attorney General.

The Attorney General shall keep on file in his office the papers pertaining to any bond issue submitted to him and shall record his findings of approval or disapproval in a well-bound book kept for that purpose in his office, which shall be open for inspection by anyone in interest during business hours.