WEST VIRGINIA CODE: §19-23-20

§19-23-20. Petition for local option election.

A petition for a local option election on the question of the proposed construction and establishment of a horse or dog racetrack must be signed by qualified voters residing within the county equal to at least fifteen percent of the qualified voters within said county at the last general election. Said petition may be in any number of counterparts, but must be filed with the county commission prior to the expiration of the sixty-day period specified in the notice published by the Racing Commission in accordance with the provisions of section nineteen of this article. Said petition shall be sufficient if in substantially the following form:

"PETITION FOR LOCAL OPTION ELEC CONSTRUCTION AND ESTABLISHME: COUNTY, WEST VIRG	ENT OF A (HORSE OR DOG) RACETRACK IN
5 5	he or she is an individual residing ined voter in said county under the laws of this state, the date of signing this petition are correctly set forth required by article twenty- three, chapt amended, upon the following question: construction permit authorizing the cor	commission to call and hold a local option election as ter nineteen of the Code of West Virginia, 1931, as 'Shall the West Virginia Racing Commission issue a instruction and establishment of a (horse or dog) eetings may be held or conducted and the pari-mutuel ducted in County, West Virginia?'
Name Address Date
(Each individual signing must specify e	either his post-office address or his street name and

(Each individual signing must specify either his post-office address or his street name and number.)"