WEST VIRGINIA CODE: §11-6-10

§11-6-10. Failure to give information required by board of public works; criminal penalty.

If any person shall refuse to appear before the board when required to do so, as aforesaid, or shall refuse to testify before the board in regard to any matter as to which the board may require him to testify, or if any person shall refuse to produce any paper in his possession or under his control, which the board may require him to produce, every such person shall be guilty of a misdemeanor and, fined $500, and may be imprisoned not less than one nor more than six months, at the discretion of the court.

WV Legislature