WEST VIRGINIA CODE: §12-4-3A

§12-4-3a. Accounts of the Auditor.

The Auditor shall at all times maintain and have available for public inspection a report containing monthly balances in the treasury, which balances shall include, but not be limited to, the general revenue surplus balance; the general revenue surplus appropriation account balance; the state general revenue reappropriated account balance; the state general revenue current account balance; the total state account balance; and the total general revenue.

WV Legislature