

WEST VIRGINIA CODE: §13-2C-20

§13-2C-20. Prohibition of financial interest of public officials.

No member of a county commission or the governing body of a municipality issuing revenue bonds under the provisions of this article shall have any financial interest, directly or indirectly, in the leasing, sale or other disposition of an industrial project or commercial project acquired, constructed or financed pursuant to this article.