WEST VIRGINIA CODE: §16-1C-3

§16-1C-3. Exceptions.

- (a) Notwithstanding section two of this article, the following shall apply:
- (1) An employee shall not be required to wear an identification badge while delivering direct patient care if it is not clinically feasible.
- (2) The last name of the employee may be omitted or concealed from an identification badge when delivering direct patient care if the employee is concerned for his or her safety.
- (b) An employee may petition the secretary for an exemption from the requirements of this article for reasons that are not set forth in this section.
- (c) An employee providing direct patient care in a behavioral health care setting may not be required to wear an identification badge.