WEST VIRGINIA CODE: §16-5J-7

§16-5J-7. Exemptions.

This article does not include or apply to any laboratory or laboratories maintained and operated by the federal government or to any laboratory or laboratories maintained and operated purely for research or teaching purposes nor to any laboratory operated by a primary health care center having tax exempt status and receiving contributions which are deductible to the contributor under provisions of federal law. All county health departments shall be exempt from this article.

WV Legislature