WEST VIRGINIA CODE: §16b-18-6

§16B-18-6. Discrimination in residential real estate-related transactions.

- (a) It is unlawful for any person or other entity whose business includes engaging in residential real estate-related transactions to discriminate against any person in making available such a transaction or in the terms or conditions of such a transaction because of race, color, religion, sex, blindness, disability, familial status, ancestry or national origin.
- (b) As used in this section, the term "residential real estate-related transaction" means any of the following:
- (1) The making or purchasing of loans or providing other financial assistance: (A) For purchasing, constructing, improving, repairing or maintaining a dwelling; or (B) secured by residential real estate; or
- (2) The selling, brokering or appraising of residential real property.
- (c) Nothing in this article prohibits a person engaged in the business of furnishing appraisals of real property to take into consideration factors other than race, color, religion, national origin, ancestry, sex, blindness, disability, or familial status.
