WEST VIRGINIA CODE: §18-10I-4

§18-10I-4. Eligibility; primary focus.

- (a) The primary focus of the supported employment program is providing employment supports for persons with severe disabilities who have never worked or have only worked intermittently due to their disability.
- (b) To be eligible for the supported employment program, a person must have a severe disability as defined in section one of this article.