WEST VIRGINIA CODE: §18B-10-1D

§18B-10-1d. Resident tuition rates for economic development participants.

- (a) The term "resident" or "residency", or any other term or expression used to designate a West Virginia resident student, when used to determine the rate of tuition to be charged students attending state institutions of higher education, may be construed to include economic development participants.
- (b) To meet the definition of "economic development participant" under this section, the following criteria must be met:
- (1) The person or the person's parent or legal guardian received economic development incentives to locate to West Virginia, offered pursuant to §5B-2-3b of this code; and
- (2) The person files with that institution of higher education a letter of intent to establish residency in this state.
- (c) An economic development participant who qualifies as a resident on the first day of the semester or term of the institution of higher education shall be eligible for resident tuition rates.
