WEST VIRGINIA CODE: §18B-20-5

§18B-20-5. Freedom of association and nondiscrimination against students and student organizations.

A state institution of higher education may not deny a religious, political, or ideological student organization any benefit or privilege generally available to other student organizations, or otherwise discriminate against the organization based on a requirement of the organization that its leaders and members:

(1) Affirm and adhere to the organization's sincerely held beliefs;

(2) Comply with the organization's standards of conduct; and

(3) Further the organization's mission, expression, or purpose.
