

WEST VIRGINIA CODE: §29-12-5B

§29-12-5b. Transit insurance.

In accordance with the terms and provisions of this article the state board of risk and management shall provide appropriate aid and assistance to the transit authorities in this state in the procurement of fleet liability insurance for all vehicles operated by any such authorities and any and all expense associated with the procurement of purchase of said insurance coverage shall be borne by the transit authorities.