WEST VIRGINIA CODE: §29-21-21

§29-21-21. Forgiveness of loans; reversion of public defender corporation assets.

All equipment, operational or supplemental loans heretofore made under the former provisions of article twenty-one are forgiven and declared null and void and shall not be an obligation of a public defender corporation formerly established under the previous provisions of article twenty-one, nor an obligation of any successor organization or of the members of any board of directors of any public defender corporation.

WV Legislature