WEST VIRGINIA CODE: §29-22B-1603

§29-22B-1603. Civil penalties applicable to service technicians.

(a) For entering the logic area of any video lottery terminal at any time when a representative of the West Virginia Lottery Commission is not present and observing the process, the service technician shall be fined:

(1) One hundred dollars for a first violation;

(2) One thousand dollars for a second violation; and

(3) Three thousand dollars for a third violation.

(b) For each subsequent violation, the fine imposed by the commission shall increase by $1,000. If two or more service technicians participate in violation of this section, each service technician shall be fined according to this schedule.

WV Legislature