WEST VIRGINIA CODE: §29-22C-19

§29-22C-19. Miscellaneous license provisions.

(a) The commission shall include on each license that it issues:

(1) The type of license;

(2) The identity and address of the licensee;

(3) The effective date of the license;

(4) For employee licenses, the picture of the licensee; and

(5) Any other information the commission considers appropriate.

(b) Each racetrack table games licensee, licensed supplier of a racetrack with West Virginia Lottery table games or a licensed management services provider shall display the license conspicuously in its place of business or have the license readily available for inspection at the request of any agent of the commission or of a state, local or municipal law-enforcement agency.

(c) Each holder of a license to be employed by a racetrack with West Virginia Lottery table games shall carry the license on his or her person at all times when present in a racetrack with West Virginia Lottery table games and, if required by rules adopted by the commission with respect to the particular capacity in which the licensee is employed, have some indicia of licensure prominently displayed on his or her person in accordance with the rules of the commission.

(d) Each person licensed under this article shall give the commission written notice of any change of address or any change of any other information provided in the licensee's application for a license or for renewal of a license, as soon as the effective date of the change is known to the licensee but not later than thirty days after the change occurs.

WV Legislature