WEST VIRGINIA CODE: §30-31A-4

§30-31A-4. Privilege to practice.

- (a) To exercise the privilege to practice under the terms and provisions of the compact, the licensee shall:
- (1) Hold a license in the home state;
- (2) Have a valid United State Social Security Number or National Practitioner Identifier;
- (3) Be eligible for a privilege to practice in any member state in accordance with §30-31A-4(d), §30-31A-4(g), and §30-31A-4(h) of this code;
- (4) Have not had any encumbrance or restriction against any license or privilege to practice within the previous two years;
- (5) Notify the commission that the licensee is seeking the privilege to practice within a remote state or states;
- (6) Pay any applicable fees, including any state fee, for the privilege to practice;
- (7) Meet any continuing competence or education requirements established by the home state;
- (8) Meet any jurisprudence requirements established by the remote state or states in which the licensee is seeking a privilege to practice; and
- (9) Report to the commission adverse action, encumbrance, or restriction on license taken by any non-member state within 30 days from the date of the action is taken.
- (b) The privilege to practice is valid until the expiration date of the home state license. The licensee must comply with the requirements of §30-31A-4(a) of this code to maintain the privilege to practice in the remote state.
- (c) A licensee providing professional counseling in a remote state under the privilege to practice shall adhere to the laws and regulations of the remote state.
- (d) A licensee providing professional counseling services in a remote state is subject to that state's regulatory authority. A remote state may, in accordance with due process and that state's laws, remove a licensee's privilege to practice in the remote state for a specific period of time, impose fines, or take any other necessary actions to protect the health and safety of its citizens. The licensee may be ineligible for a privilege to practice in any member state until the specific time for removal has passed and all fines are paid.

- (e) If a home state license is encumbered, the licensee shall lose the privilege to practice in any remote state until the following occur:
- (1) The home state license is no longer encumbered; and
- (2) Have not had any encumbrance or restriction against any license or privilege to practice within the previous two years.
- (f) Once an encumbered license in the home state is restored to good standing, the licensee shall meet the requirements of §30-31A-4(a) of this code to obtain a privilege to practice in any remote state.
- (g) If a licensee's privilege to practice in any remote state is removed, the individual may lose the privilege to practice in all other remote states until the following occur:
- (1) The specific period for which the privilege to practice was removed has ended;
- (2) All fines have been paid; and
- (3) Have not had any encumbrance or restriction against any license or privilege to practice within the previous two years.
- (h) Once the requirements of §30-31A-4(g) of this code have been met, the licensee shall meet the requirements in §30-31A-4(a) of this code to obtain a privilege to practice in a remote state.
