WEST VIRGINIA CODE: §30-31A-5

§30-31A-5. Obtaining a new home state license based on a privilege to practice.

- (a) A licensed professional counselor may hold a home state license, which allows for a privilege to practice in other member states, in only one member state at a time.
- (b) If a licensed professional counselor changes primary state of residence by moving between two member states:
- (1) The licensed professional counselor shall file an application for obtaining a new home state license based on a privilege to practice, pay all applicable fees, and notify the current and new home state in accordance with applicable rules adopted by the commission.
- (2) Upon receipt of an application for obtaining a new home state license by virtue of privilege to practice, the new home state shall verify that the licensed professional counselor meets the pertinent criteria outlined in §30-31A-4 of this code via the data system, without need for primary source verification except for:
- (A) A Federal Bureau of Investigation fingerprint based criminal background check if not previously performed or updated pursuant to the applicable rules adopted by the commission in accordance with Public Law 92-544;
- (B) Other criminal background check as required by the new home state; and
- (C) Completion of any requisite jurisprudence requirements of the new home state.
- (3) The former home state shall convert the former home state license into a privilege to practice once the new home state has activated the new home state license in accordance with applicable rules adopted by the commission.
- (4) Notwithstanding any other provision of this compact, if the licensed professional counselor cannot meet the criteria in §30-31A-4 of this code, the new home state shall apply its requirements for issuing a new single-state license.
- (5) The licensed professional counselor shall pay all applicable fees to the new home state in order to be issued a new home state license.
- (c) If a licensed professional counselor changes primary state of residence by moving from a member state to a non-member state, or from a non-member state to a member state, the state criteria shall apply for issuance of a single-state license in the new state.
- (d) Nothing in this compact may interfere with a licensee's ability to hold a single-state license in multiple states; however, for the purposes of this compact, a licensee shall have only one home state license.

(e) Nothing in this compact may affect the requirements established by a member state for the issuance of a single-state license.
