

WEST VIRGINIA CODE: §33-12-29

§33-12-29. Notice of hearing before the commissioner; failure to appear; entry of orders; appeal.

(a) When conducting any hearing authorized by section thirteen, article two of this chapter which concerns any insurance producer, solicitor, or service representative, the commissioner shall give notice of the hearing and the matters to be determined therein to the insurance producer, solicitor or service representative by certified mail, return receipt requested, sent to the last address filed by the person or entity pursuant to subsection (e), section nine of this article.

(b) If an insurance producer, solicitor or service representative fails to appear at the hearing, the hearing may proceed, at which time the commissioner shall establish that notice was sent to the person pursuant to this section prior to the entry of any orders adverse to the interests of the insurance producer, solicitor or service representative based upon the allegations against a person which were set forth in the notice of hearing. Certified copies of all orders entered by the commissioner shall be sent to the person affected therein by certified mail, return receipt requested, at the last address filed by such person with the division.

(c) An insurance producer, solicitor or service representative who fails to appear at a hearing of which notice has been provided pursuant to this section, and who has had an adverse order entered by the commissioner against them as a result of their failure to so appear may, within thirty calendar days of the entry of an adverse order, file with the commissioner a written verified appeal with any relevant documents attached thereto, which demonstrates good and reasonable cause for the person's failure to appear, and may request reconsideration of the matter and a new hearing. The commissioner in his or her discretion, and upon a finding that the insurance producer, solicitor or service representative has shown good and reasonable cause for his or her failure to appear, shall issue an order that the previous order be rescinded, that the matter be reconsidered, and that a new hearing be set.

(d) Orders entered pursuant to this section are subject to the judicial review provisions of section fourteen, article two of this chapter.
