WEST VIRGINIA CODE: §33-13-3

§33-13-3. Grace period.

There shall be a provision that a grace period of thirty-one days shall be allowed within which the payment of any premium after the first may be made, during which period of grace the policy shall continue in full force; but if a claim arises under the policy during such period of grace before the overdue premium is paid the amount of such premium may be deducted from the policy proceeds.
