WEST VIRGINIA CODE: §33-13-35

§33-13-35. Same -- Misstatement of age.

There shall be a provision in each industrial life insurance policy that if it is found that the age of the individual insured, or the age of any other individual considered in determining the premium, has been misstated, any amount payable or benefit accruing under the policy shall be such as the premium would have purchased at the correct age or ages.

WV Legislature