WEST VIRGINIA CODE: §33-13B-5

§33-13B-5. Failure to provide required notice; penalties.

Any person who violates any provision of section three or four of this article may, after notice and hearing pursuant to section thirteen, article two of this chapter, be fined by the commissioner a sum not to exceed $1,000 per qualified charitable gift annuity agreement issued: Provided, That the failure of a charitable organization to comply with the notice requirements imposed under section three or four of this article does not prevent a charitable gift annuity that otherwise meets the requirements of this article from constituting a qualified charitable gift annuity.

WV Legislature