

WEST VIRGINIA CODE: §33-20-19

§33-20-19. Publication of automobile insurance rates.

Annually, during the first quarter of each year, the commissioner shall publish a list of the current premium rates for minimum automobile liability insurance as required under the provisions of section two, article four, chapter seventeen-d of this code. The list shall contain the names of all insurers that are licensed by the commissioner to sell such insurance in this state and shall be presented in such a manner so as to demonstrate to the public an accurate comparison of the rates charged by each company for the same insurance coverage.

This list shall be made available to the public through the Tax Division of the sheriff's department and public libraries in each of the fifty-five counties.
