WEST VIRGINIA CODE: §33-25B-8

§33-25B-8. Activities not deemed the sale of insurance; exemptions from benefits and taxation.

(a) Assisting individuals in the preparation of applications to the fund and selection of the providers does not constitute the sale of insurance and shall not be subject to regulation by the Insurance Commissioner.

(b) Insurance coverage bought by the guardian through the use of a voucher provided pursuant to the provisions of this article will be exempt from state law and regulations requiring certain mandatory state insurance coverages or benefits.

(c) Insurance coverage bought by guardians through the use of a voucher provided pursuant to the provisions of this article shall not be subject to state premium taxes.

WV Legislature