WEST VIRGINIA CODE: §33-49-9

§33-49-9. Federal law requiring certification.

If federal law or rule requires a certification by a state insurance regulatory official as a condition of qualifying for private flood insurance or disaster assistance, the commissioner shall provide the certification, and the certification is not subject to review under section fourteen, article two of this chapter.

WV Legislature