WEST VIRGINIA CODE: §33-6B-6

§33-6B-6. Sanctions.

If the commissioner determines in a final order that:

(a) An insurer has violated section three or four of this article, he may require the insurer to:

(1) Accept the application or written request for insurance coverage at a rate and on the same terms and conditions as are available to its other risks with similar characteristics; or

(2) Reinstate insurance coverage to the end of the policy period; or

(3) Continue insurance coverage at a rate and on the same terms and conditions as are available to its other risks with similar characteristics.

(b) Any person has violated any provision of this article, he may:

(1) Issue a cease and desist order to restrain the person from engaging in practices which violate this article;

(2) Assess a penalty against the person of up to $5,000 for each willful and knowing violation of this article.
