WEST VIRGINIA CODE: §38-7-12

§38-7-12. Form of order of attachment when bond given.

If the plaintiff at the time of suing out his attachment, or afterwards before judgment, give the bond and security required by section eight of this article, such order may be in form or effect as follows:

A B Plaintiff,
vs.Order of Attachment. C D, Defendant.
The plaintiff in this case having filed the necessary affidavit and bond, the scounty of, or a constable of any district therein, to whom this order shereby required, in the name of the State of West Virginia, to attach the reattach and take into his possession the personal property of the defendant, b, sufficient to pay the sum of	hall come, is all estate, and to Cfiant states the turn of his at the rules to be Witness E F, clerk of said court, this day of E F Clerk.	