WEST VIRGINIA CODE: §40-1-13

§40-1-13. Priorities of writings admitted to record on same day.

Where two or more writings embracing the same property are admitted to record in the same county on the same day, if the previous sections do not provide for the case, that which was first admitted to record shall have priority in respect to the property in such county.

WV Legislature