WEST VIRGINIA CODE: §44-8-4

§44-8-4. By what court assets administered.

Such assets, so far as they may be in the hands of the personal representative of the decedent, may be administered by the court in whose clerk's office there is or may be filed a report of the accounts of such representative, and of the debts and demands against the decedent's estate, or they may, in any case, be administered by a court of equity.
