§44D-5-503b. Definitions.

As used in this article, unless the context requires a different meaning:

A trustee is not a qualified trustee if such trustee's authority to make distributions of income or principal or both are subject to the direction of someone who, were that person a trustee of the trust, would not meet the requirements to be a qualified trustee.

- (6) The trust instrument includes a spendthrift provision, as defined in section five hundred two of this article, that restrains both voluntary and involuntary transfer of the grantor's qualified interest;
- (7) The grantor does not have the right to disapprove distributions from the trust; and
- (8) The grantor duly executes a qualified affidavit before or substantially contemporaneously with the making of the transfer of the asset or assets into the trust.
 - (e) "Qualified affidavit" means a duly executed affidavit of the grantor which contains under oath all of the following statements, or statements substantially to the effect:
 - (1) The property being transferred to the trust was not derived from unlawful activities;
 - (2) The grantor has full right, title, and authority to transfer the property to the trust;
 - (3) The grantor will not be rendered insolvent immediately after the transfer of the property to the trust;
 - (4) The grantor does not intend to defraud any creditor by transferring the property to the trust;

 - (6) The grantor is not involved in any administrative proceeding, except for any proceeding expressly identified in the affidavit or an attachment to the affidavit;

(7) The grantor is not indebted on account of an agreement or order of court for the payment of support or alimony in favor of such transferor's spouse, former spouse or children, or for a division or distribution of property incident to a judicial proceeding with respect to a divorce or annulment in favor of such transferor's spouse or former spouse, except for any such indebtedness expressly identified in the affidavit or an attachment to the affidavit; and

(8) The grantor does not contemplate at the time of the transfer the filing for relief under the Bankruptcy Code of the United States.

An affidavit is defective and is not a qualified affidavit if it materially fails to meet the requirements set forth in this subsection. An affidavit is not considered defective and is a qualified affidavit if it contains any nonsubstantive variances from the language set forth in this subsection, it contains statements or representations in addition to those required in this subsection which do not materially contradict the required statements or representations or there are any technical errors in the form, substance or method of preparation or execution of the affidavit if those errors were not the fault of the affiant and the affiant reasonably relied upon another person to prepare or notarize the affidavit.
