WEST VIRGINIA CODE: §46-3-304

§46-3-304. Overdue instrument.

- (a) An instrument payable on demand becomes overdue at the earliest of the following times:
- (1) On the day after the day demand for payment is duly made;
- (2) If the instrument is a check, ninety days after its date; or
- (3) If the instrument is not a check, when the instrument has been outstanding for a period of time after its date which is unreasonably long under the circumstances of the particular case in light of the nature of the instrument and usage of the trade.
- (b) With respect to an instrument payable at a definite time the following rules apply:
- (1) If the principal is payable in installments and a due date has not been accelerated, the instrument becomes overdue upon default under the instrument for nonpayment of an installment, and the instrument remains overdue until the default is cured:
- (2) If the principal is not payable in installments and the due date has not been accelerated, the instrument becomes overdue on the day after the due date;
- (3) If a due date with respect to principal has been accelerated, the instrument becomes overdue on the day after the accelerated due date.
- (c) Unless the due date or principal has been accelerated, an instrument does not become overdue if there is default in payment of interest but no default in payment of principal.
