WEST VIRGINIA CODE: §46-9-206

§46-9-206. Security interest arising in purchase or delivery of financial asset.

- (a) Security interest when person buys through securities intermediary. A security interest in favor of a securities intermediary attaches to a person's security entitlement if:
- (1) The person buys a financial asset through the securities intermediary in a transaction in which the person is obligated to pay the purchase price to the securities intermediary at the time of the purchase; and
- (2) The securities intermediary credits the financial asset to the buyer's securities account before the buyer pays the securities intermediary.
- (b) Security interest secures obligation to pay for financial asset. The security interest described in subsection (a) secures the person's obligation to pay for the financial asset.
- (c) Security interest in payment against delivery transaction. A security interest in favor of a person that delivers a certificated security or other financial asset represented by a writing attaches to the security or other financial asset if:
- (1) The security or other financial asset:
- (A) In the ordinary course of business is transferred by delivery with any necessary indorsement or assignment; and
- (B) Is delivered under an agreement between persons in the business of dealing with such securities or financial assets; and
- (2) The agreement calls for delivery against payment.
- (d) Security interest secures obligation to pay for delivery. The security interest described in subsection (c) of this section secures the obligation to make payment for the delivery.
