WEST VIRGINIA CODE: §46-9-613

§46-9-613. Contents and form of notification before disposition of collateral: general.

Except in a consumer-goods transaction, the following rules apply:

- (1) The contents of a notification of disposition are sufficient if the notification:
- (A) Describes the debtor and the secured party;
- (B) Describes the collateral that is the subject of the intended disposition;
- (C) States the method of intended disposition;
- (D) States that the debtor is entitled to an accounting of the unpaid indebtedness and states the charge, if any, for an accounting; and
- (E) States the time and place of a public disposition or the time after which any other disposition is to be made.
- (2) Whether the contents of a notification that lacks any of the information specified in paragraph (1) of this section are nevertheless sufficient is a question of fact.
- (3) The contents of a notification providing substantially the information specified in paragraph (1) of this section are sufficient, even if the notification includes:
- (A) Information not specified by that paragraph; or
- (B) Minor errors that are not seriously misleading.
- (4) A particular phrasing of the notification is not required.
- (5) The following form of notification and the form appearing in section 9-614(3), when completed, each provides sufficient information:
