§48-15-206. Notice of consequences of failure to comply.

The notice shall advise the person that further failure to comply may result in an action against licenses held by the person, and that any pending application for a license may be denied, renewal of a license may be refused, or an existing license may be suspended or restricted unless, within thirty days of the date of the notice, the person pays the full amount of the child support arrearage or the medical support arrearage, makes a request for a meeting with a representative of the Bureau for Child Support enforcement to arrange a payment plan or to otherwise arrange compliance with existing support orders, or makes a request for a court hearing to the Bureau for Child Support enforcement. An action against a license shall be terminated if the person pays the full amount of the child support arrearage or medical support arrearage, or provides proof that health insurance for the child has been obtained as required by a medical support order or enters into a written plan with the Bureau for Child Support enforcement for the payment of current payments and payment on the arrearage.

§48-15-207. Failure to act in response to notice; entry of order.

If the person fails to take one of the actions described in section 15-206 within thirty days of the date of the notice and there is proof that service on the person was effective, the Bureau for Child Support enforcement shall file a certification with the court setting forth the person's noncompliance with the support order or failure to comply with a subpoena or warrant and the person's failure to respond to the written notice of the potential action against his or her license. If the court is satisfied that service of the notice on the person was effective as set forth in this section, it shall, without need for further due process or hearing, enter an order suspending or restricting any licenses held by the person. Upon the entry of the order, the Bureau for Child Support enforcement shall forward a copy to the person and to any appropriate agencies responsible for the issuance of a license.

§48-15-208. Request and petition for hearing.

If the person requests a hearing, the Bureau for Child Support enforcement shall file a petition for a hearing before the family court. The hearing shall occur within forty-two days of the receipt of the person's request. If, prior to the hearing, the person pays the full amount of the child support arrearage or medical support arrearage or provides health insurance as ordered, the action against a license shall be terminated. No action against a license shall be initiated if the Bureau for Child Support enforcement has received notice that the person has pending a motion to modify the child support order if that motion was filed prior to the date that the notice of the action against the license was sent by the Bureau for Child Support enforcement. The court shall consider the Bureau for Child Support enforcement's petition to deny, refuse to renew, suspend or restrict a license in accordance with section 15-209.

§48-15-209. Hearing on denial, nonrenewal, suspension or restriction of license.

(a) The court shall order a licensing authority to deny, refuse to renew, suspend or restrict a license if it finds that:

(1) All appropriate enforcement methods have been exhausted or are not available;

(2) The person is the holder of a license or has an application pending for a license;

(3) The requisite amount of child support or medical support arrearage exists or health insurance for the child has not been provided as ordered, or the person has failed to comply with a subpoena or warrant relating to a paternity or child support proceeding;

(4) No motion to modify the child support order, filed prior to the date that the notice was sent by the Bureau for Child Support enforcement, is pending before the court; and

(5) There is no equitable reason, such as involuntary unemployment, disability, or compliance with a court-ordered plan for the periodic payment of the child support arrearage amount, for the person's noncompliance with the child support order.

(b) If the court is satisfied that the conditions described in subsection (a) of this section exist, it shall first consider suspending or restricting a driver's license prior to professional license. If the person fails to appear at the hearing after being properly served with notice, the court shall order the suspension of all licenses held by the person.

(c) If the court finds that a license suspension will result in a significant hardship to the person, to the person's legal dependents under eighteen years of age living in the person's household, to the person's employees, or to persons, businesses or entities to whom the person provides goods or services, the court may allow the person to pay a percentage of the past-due child support amount as an initial payment, and establish a payment schedule to satisfy the remainder of the arrearage within one year, and require that the person comply with any current child support obligation. If the person agrees to this arrangement, no suspension or restriction of any licenses shall be ordered. Compliance with the payment agreement shall be monitored by the Bureau for Child Support enforcement.

(d) If a person has good cause for not complying with the payment agreement within the time permitted, the person shall immediately file a motion with the court and the Bureau for Child Support enforcement requesting an extension of the payment plan. The court may extend the payment plan if it is satisfied that the person has made a good faith effort to comply with the plan and is unable to satisfy the full amount of past-due support within the time permitted due to circumstances beyond the person's control. If the person fails to comply with the court-ordered payment schedule, the court shall, upon receipt of a certification of noncompliance from the Bureau for Child Support enforcement, and without further hearing, order the immediate suspension or restriction of all licenses held by the person.

PART 3. ENFORCEMENT OF ORDER

BY LICENSING AUTHORITY.

§48-15-301. Copy of order provided to licensing authority.

- (a) The Bureau for Child Support enforcement shall provide the licensing authority with a copy of the order requiring the denial, nonrenewal, suspension or restriction of a license.
- (b) Upon receipt of an order requiring the suspension or restriction of a license for nonpayment of child support, the licensing authority shall immediately notify the applicant or licensee of the effective date of the denial, nonrenewal, suspension or limitation, which shall be twenty days after the date of the notice, direct any licensee to refrain from engaging in the activity associated with the license, surrender any license as required by law, and inform the applicant or licensee that the license shall not be approved, renewed or reinstated until the court or Bureau for Child Support enforcement certifies compliance with court orders for the payment of current child support and arrearage.
- (c) The Bureau for Child Support enforcement, in association with the affected licensing authorities, may develop electronic or magnetic tape data transfers to notify licensing authorities of denials, nonrenewals, suspensions and reinstatements.
- (d) No liability shall be imposed on a licensing authority for suspending or restricting a license if the action is in response to a court order issued in accordance with this article.
- (e) Licensing authorities shall not have jurisdiction to modify, remand, reverse, vacate or stay a court order to deny, not renew, suspend or restrict a license for nonpayment of child support.

§48-15-302. Denial, nonrenewal, suspension or restriction continues until further order or issuance of certificate of compliance.

The denial, nonrenewal, suspension or restriction of a license ordered by the court shall continue until the Bureau for Child Support enforcement files with the licensing authority either a court order restoring the license or a Bureau for Child Support enforcement certification attesting to compliance with court orders for the payment of current child support and arrearage.

§48-15-303. License applicant to certify information regarding child support obligation.

(a) Each licensing authority shall require license applicants to certify on the license application form, under penalty of false swearing, that the applicant does not have a child support obligation, the applicant does have such an obligation but any arrearage amount does not equal or exceed the amount of child support payable for six months, or the applicant is not the subject of a child-support related subpoena or warrant. The application form shall state that making a false statement may subject the license holder to disciplinary action including, but not limited to, immediate revocation or suspension of the license.

(b) A license shall not be granted to any person who applies for a license if there is an arrearage equal to or exceeding the amount of child support payable for six months or if it is determined that the applicant has failed to comply with a warrant or subpoena in a paternity or child support proceeding.

§48-15-304. Procedure where license to practice law may be subject to denial, suspension or restriction.

If a person who has been admitted to the practice of law in this state by order of the Supreme Court of Appeals is determined to be in default under a support order or has failed to comply with a subpoena or warrant in a paternity or child support proceeding, such that his or her other licenses are subject to suspension or restriction under this article, the Bureau for Child Support enforcement may send a notice listing the name and social security number or other identification number to the lawyer disciplinary board established by the Supreme Court of Appeals. The Legislature hereby requests the Supreme Court of Appeals to promptly adopt rules pursuant to its Constitutional authority to govern the practice of law that would include as attorney misconduct for which an attorney may be disciplined, situations in which a person licensed to practice law in West Virginia has been determined to be in default under a support order or has failed to comply with a subpoena or warrant in a paternity or child support proceeding.

PART 4. MISCELLANEOUS PROVISIONS.

§48-15-401. Application of article.

The provisions of this article apply to all orders issued before or after the enactment of this article. All child support, medical support and health insurance provisions in existence on or before the effective date of this article shall be included in determining whether a case is eligible for enforcement. This article applies to all child support obligations ordered by any state, territory or district of the United States that are being enforced by the Bureau for Child Support enforcement, that are payable directly to the obligee, or have been registered in this state in accordance with the uniform interstate family support act.

§48-15-402. Effect of determination as to authority of federal government to require denials, suspensions or restrictions of licenses.

The provisions of this article have been enacted to conform to the mandates of the federal "Personal Responsibility and Work Opportunity Reconciliation Act of 1996." If a court of competent jurisdiction should determine, or if it is otherwise determined that the federal government lacked authority to mandate the license denials, nonrenewals, suspensions or restrictions contemplated by this article, then the provisions of this article shall be null and void and of no force and effect.
