

WEST VIRGINIA CODE: §48-2-105

§48-2-105. Execution of the application for a marriage license.

Both female and male parties to a contemplated marriage are required to sign the application for a marriage license, under oath. The application must be signed before the clerk of the county commission or another person authorized to administer oaths under the laws of this state.