WEST VIRGINIA CODE: §48-2-105

§48-2-105. Execution of the application for a marriage license.

Both female and male parties to a contemplated marriage are required to sign the application for a marriage license, under oath. The application must be signed before the clerk of the county commission or another person authorized to administer oaths under the laws of this state.

WV Legislature