

WEST VIRGINIA CODE: §48-2-405

§48-2-405. Record of marriage to be kept by person officiating.

A record of each marriage performed, with the names of the parties, their respective places of residence prior to marriage, and the date of marriage, shall be kept by the officiating religious representative in the permanent record of the church, synagogue, spiritual assembly or religious organization which he or she serves.