WEST VIRGINIA CODE: §48-2-503

§48-2-503. Consanguineous marriage; penalty.

- (a) If a person marries another who is within the degrees of relationship described in section 2-302, and the relationship is founded on consanguinity, the person is guilty of a misdemeanor and, upon conviction thereof, shall be fined not more than $500, or be confined in the county or regional jail for not more than six months, or both, in the discretion of the court.
- (b) If a person who is a resident of this state marries in another state or country, the person violates subsection (a) of this section if:
- (1) The persons married are within the degrees of relationship described in section 2-302 and the relationship is founded on consanguinity;
- (2) The person intends to evade the law of this state;
- (3) The person intends to return and reside in this state; and
- (4) The persons, after marrying, return to this state and cohabit as man and wife.
- (c) For purposes of this section, the fact of cohabitation of the persons as man and wife is evidence of their marriage.
