WEST VIRGINIA CODE: §48-23-505

§48-23-505. Retention of data by the registry.

Any affidavits filed and other information collected shall be retained for ten years following the date of registration by any qualified person to which the information pertains. Any qualified person who registers may renew his or her registration for ten additional years within one hundred eighty days prior to the last day of ten years from the date of initial registration.

WV Legislature