WEST VIRGINIA CODE: §48-29-103

§48-29-103. Emancipation from all disabilities as to personal or real property.

All married women, including married women who are not residents of this state to the extent that they are affected by the laws of this state, may own in their own right, real and personal property, acquired by descent, gift or purchase and may manage, sell, convey or dispose of any real or personal property to the same extent and in the same manner a married man can property belonging to him

WV Legislature