WEST VIRGINIA CODE: §48-5-206

§48-5-206. Grounds for divorce; permanent and incurable insanity.

- (a) A divorce may be ordered for permanent and incurable insanity, only if the person is permanently and incurably insane and has been confined in a mental hospital or other similar institution for a period of not less than three consecutive years next preceding the filing of the complaint and the court has heard competent medical testimony that such insanity is permanently incurable.
- (b) A court granting a divorce on this grounds may in its discretion order support and maintenance for the permanently incurably insane party by the other.
- (c) In an action for divorce or annulment, where the petitioner is permanently incurably insane, the respondent shall not enter a plea of recrimination based upon the insanity of the petitioner.
