

WEST VIRGINIA CODE: §48-5-605

§48-5-605. Use and possession of motor vehicles.

- (a) The court may award the exclusive use and possession of a motor vehicle or vehicles to either of the parties.
- (b) The court may require payments to third parties in the form of automobile loan installments or insurance coverage, if coverage is available at reasonable rates. When requiring third-party payments, the court shall reduce them to a fixed monetary amount set forth in the order. The court shall specify whether third-party payments or portions of payments are spousal support or installment payments for the distribution of marital property.
- (c) This section is not intended to abrogate a contract between either party and a third party or affect the rights and liabilities of either party or a third party under the terms of a contract.
