WEST VIRGINIA CODE: §55-17-6

§55-17-6. Construction of article.

- (a) It is the express intent of the Legislature that the provisions of this article be liberally construed to effectuate the public policy set forth in section one of this article.
- (b) The provisions of this article may not be construed to impose any liability upon a state agency from which the agency is otherwise immune.