WEST VIRGINIA CODE: §56-8-11

§56-8-11. Death of trustee and appointment of substitute in pending suit.

In a suit in equity in which it appears that a trustee has died, although the heirs of such trustee be not parties to the suit, yet if his personal representative and the other persons interested be parties, the court may appoint another trustee in the place of him who has died, to act either alone or in conjunction with any surviving trustee, as the case may require.

WV Legislature