
WEST VIRGINIA CODE CHAPTER 62
ARTICLE 11

WV Legislature

§62-11-1. Arrests within state by nonresident peace officer.

Any member of a duly organized state, county or municipal peace unit of another state of the United States who enters this state in fresh pursuit, and continues within this state in such fresh pursuit, of a person in order to arrest him on the ground that he is believed to have committed a felony in such other state, shall have the same authority to arrest and hold such person in custody, as has any member of any duly organized state, county or municipal peace unit of this state to arrest and hold in custody a person on the ground that he is believed to have committed a felony in this state.

§62-11-2. Procedure upon arrest.

If an arrest is made in this state by an officer of another state in accordance with the provisions of section one of this article he shall without unnecessary delay take the person arrested before a magistrate of the county in which the arrest was made, who shall conduct a hearing for the purpose of determining the lawfulness of the arrest. If the magistrate determines that the arrest was lawful he shall commit the person arrested to await for a reasonable time the issuance of an extradition warrant by the Governor of this state. If the magistrate determines that the arrest was unlawful he shall discharge the person arrested.

§62-11-3. Construction of §62-11-1.

Section one of this article shall not be construed so as to make unlawful any arrest in this state which would otherwise be lawful.

WV Legislature

§62-11-4. "State" includes District of Columbia.

For the purpose of this article the word "state" shall include the District of Columbia.

WV Legislature

§62-11-5. "Fresh pursuit" defined.

The term "fresh pursuit" as used in this article shall include fresh pursuit as defined by the common law, and also the pursuit of a person who has committed a felony or who is reasonably suspected of having committed a felony. It shall also include the pursuit of a person suspected of having committed a supposed felony, though no felony has actually been committed, if there is reasonable ground for believing that a felony has been committed. Fresh pursuit as used herein shall not necessarily imply instant pursuit, but pursuit without unreasonable delay.

§62-11-6. Secretary of state to certify article.

It shall be the duty of the Secretary of State (or other officer) to certify a copy of this article to the executive department of each of the states of the United States.

WV Legislature

§62-11-7. How article cited.

This article may be cited as the "Uniform Act on Fresh Pursuit."
