§62-11C-9. Use of community corrections programs for those not under court supervision.

(a) Subject to the availability of community corrections programs in the county, a written pretrial diversion agreement, entered into pursuant to the provisions of §61-11-22 of this code, may require participation or supervision in a community corrections program as part of the prosecution and resolution of charges. A court ordered deferred adjudication proceeding, pursuant to the provisions of §61-11-22a of this code, may require, through terms and conditions imposed upon a defendant, participation or supervision in a community corrections program.

Upon the defendant's motion, the court shall continue the matter for the period of time necessary for the person charged to complete the pretrial diversion program. If the person charged successfully completes the pretrial diversion program, the matter is to be resolved pursuant to the terms of the pretrial diversion agreement. If the person charged fails to successfully complete the pretrial diversion program, the matter shall be returned to the court's docket for resolution.

(c) No provision of this article may be construed to limit the prosecutor's discretion to prosecute an individual who has not fulfilled the terms of a written pretrial diversion by not completing the required supervision or participation in a community corrections program.

(d) Notwithstanding any provision of this code to the contrary, any person whose case is disposed of by entering into a pretrial diversion agreement, pursuant to the provisions of §61-11-22 of this code is liable for any applicable court costs. Payment of the court costs shall be made a condition of the pretrial diversion agreement: Provided, That financial inability to pay court costs may not be a basis for denying a person a pretrial diversion.

(e) Subject to the availability of community corrections programs in the county, a written pretrial diversion agreement, entered into pursuant to the provisions of §61-11-22 of this code, may require participation or supervision in a community corrections program as part of the prosecution and resolution of charges. (g) Notwithstanding any provision of this code to the contrary, any person whose case is disposed of by entering into a deferred adjudication, pursuant to the provisions of §61-11-22a of this code is liable for any applicable court costs. Payment of the court costs shall be made a term and condition of the deferred adjudication. - (4) Evaluate the services, sanctions and programs provided by each community corrections program to ensure that they address criminogenic needs and are evidence based;
- (5) Encourage community criminal justice boards to develop programs in addition to or in lieu of day report centers through grants and more focused use of day report services; and
- (6) Annually report to the Community Corrections Subcommittee on the results of duties required by this section.
