WEST VIRGINIA CODE: §62-1A-10

§62-1A-10. Motor vehicle searches.

- (a) A law-enforcement officer who stops a motor vehicle for an alleged violation of a traffic misdemeanor law or ordinance may not search the vehicle unless he or she:
- (1) Has probable cause or another lawful basis for the search;
- (2) Obtains the written consent of the operator of the vehicle on a form that complies with section eleven of this article; or, alternatively,
- (3) Obtains the oral consent of the operator of the vehicle and ensures that the oral consent is evidenced by an audio recording that complies with section eleven of this article.
- (b) Notwithstanding the provisions of subsection (a) of this section, should a form meeting the requirement of section eleven of this article or an audio recording device be unavailable a handwritten consent executed by the vehicle operator and meeting the consent requirements of section eleven of this article will suffice.
- (c) Notwithstanding the provisions of subsection (a) or (b)of this section should a court find that the officer had a reasonable suspicion of dangerousness to his or her safety which precluded recordation of the consent the recordation requirements of this section shall be found inapplicable.
- (d) Failure to comply with the provisions of this section shall not, standing alone, constitute proof that any consent to search was involuntary.
- (e) A finding by a court that the operator of a motor vehicle voluntarily and verbally consented to a search of the motor vehicle shall make the recordation requirements of this section inapplicable.
- (f) Nothing contained in this section shall be construed to create a private cause of action.
- (g) This section takes effect on January 1, 2011.
