

WEST VIRGINIA CODE: §8A-2-6

§8A-2-6. Sharing planning commissions.

- (a) The governing body of a municipality located within a county with a planning commission may, by ordinance, designate the county planning commission as the municipal planning commission. A county planning commission designated as a municipal planning commission has all the powers, authority and duties granted under this article to a municipal planning commission.
- (b) The county commission of a county with a municipal planning commission may, by ordinance, designate the municipal planning commission as the county planning commission. A municipal planning commission designated as a county planning commission has all the powers, authority and duties granted under this article to a county planning commission.
- (c) If a municipality is located in more than one county, this section only applies to the county where the major portion of the territory of the municipality is located.
- (d) Municipalities and counties may contract annually with each other to pay expenses for shared planning commissions.
