(H. B. No. 128)

[Passed March 4, 1931; in effect ninety days from passage.]

AN ACT to amend and re-enact section one of article twelve of chapter eighteen of the official code of West Virginia, pertaining to state teachers' colleges, their continuation and management.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of West Virginia:

That section one, article twelve, chapter eighteen of the official code of West Virginia, be amended and re-enacted so as to read as follows:

Section 1. The state teachers' colleges heretofore established 2 and known as state normal schools shall be continued and shall 3 be known as state teachers' colleges, respectively, as follows:
4 "Fairmont State Teachers' College," "West Liberty State
5 Teachers' College," "Glenville State Teachers' College,"
6 "Shepherd State Teachers' College" and "Concord State
7 Teachers' College." The educational affair of the afore-
8 said institutions shall be under the control, supervision
9 and management of the state board of education, as provided

10 in section thirteen, article two of this chapter, and their financial 11 and business affairs shall be under the charge and control of the 12 state board of control, as provided in section four, article one,
13 chapter twenty-five of this code. The function of the state teach-14 ers' colleges shall be the preparation of teachers through such 15 courses of study as the faculties thereof may prescribe with the 16 approval of the state board of education. The rules and regu-
17 lations made by the president or other head and the teachers of 18 each of the state teachers' colleges for the general government of 19 such college, for the admission of students thereto, the standards 20 of scholarship to be maintained therein, and the graduation of 21 students therefrom, shall be submitted to the state board of edu-
22 cation for its approval. The president and the teachers of each 23 of the state teachers' colleges shall be persons of broad and liberal 24 education, as evidenced by the possession of a bachelor's degree
25 from a standard college or university, or the equivalent thereof,
26 as a minimum requirement.
