ENROLLED BILL

(H. B. No. 146)

[Passed February 27, 1931; in effect ninety days from passage.]

AN ACT to re-enact and amend section six of article four of chapter eleven, official code of the state of West Virginia, one thousand nine hundred thirty-one, relating to assessment of lands, estates in land and undivided interests therein.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of West Virginia:

Section 6. When a tract of land becomes the property of 2 different owners in several parcels, the assessor shall assess the 3 several parcels separately to the individual owners thereof, giving
4 to each of such parcels its true and actual value according to the 5 rule prescribed in this chapter. When any person becomes the 6 owner of the surface, and another or others become the owner
7 or owners of the coal, oil, gas, ore, limestone, fireclay, or other
8 minerals or mineral substances in and under the same, or of the 9 timber therein, the assessor shall assess such respective estates to 10 the respective owners thereof at their true and actual value,
11 according to the rule prescribed in this chapter.
