ENROLLED BILL
(S. B. No. 142)

[Passed February 28, 1931; in effect ninety days from passage.]

AN ACT to authorize the county court of Pleasants county, West Virginia, to lay a special levy, not exceeding ten cents on each one hundred dollars of the assessed valuation of the taxable property in said county for general county purposes; to lay a special levy not exceeding five cents on each one hundred dollars of the assessed valuation of the taxable property in said county for general road purposes, and to lay a special levy not exceeding five cents on each one hundred dollars of the assessed valuation of the taxable property in said county for district road purposes; said special levy for
Be it enacted by the Legislature of West Virginia:

Section 1. Beginning with the next levy period, until the present indebtedness of the county of Pleasants is fully paid off and discharged, or payment thereof provided for, not however to exceed a period of ten years, the county court of Pleasants county shall have authority to lay, at the same time and in the same manner in which other levies are laid, a special levy for general county purposes not to exceed ten cents on each one hundred dollars of the valuation of the taxable property in the county of Pleasants as shown by the assessments thereof.

Sec. 2. Beginning with the next levy period, until the present indebtedness of the county of Pleasants is fully paid off and discharged, or payment thereof provided for, not however to exceed a period of five years, the county court of Pleasants county shall have authority to lay, at the same time and in the same manner in which other levies are laid, a special levy for county road purposes not to exceed five cents on each one hundred dollars of the valuation of the taxable property in the county of Pleasants as shown by the assessment thereof.

Sec. 3. Beginning with the next levy period, until the present indebtedness of the various magisterial districts of the county of Pleasants is fully paid off and discharged, or payment thereof provided for, not however to exceed a period of five years, the county court of Pleasants county shall have authority to lay, at the same time and in the same manner in which other levies are laid in each magisterial district in said county, a special levy for district road purposes, not to exceed five cents on each one hundred dollars of the valuation of the taxable property in the county of Pleasants as shown by the assessment thereof.

Sec. 4. The funds derived from the aforesaid special levies for general county purposes, county road purposes, and district road purposes, respectively, shall be applied only to the payment of the present indebtedness including interest of 5 Pleasants county, West Virginia, and the magisterial districts
6 thereof, and for no other purposes, and shall be in addition to 7 all other levies now provided by general law: Provided, how-
8 ever, That the county court is hereby authorized to issue orders
9 against the funds derived from said special levies for the pay-
10 ment of interest on the orders now outstanding, and comprising
11 the present indebtedness of the county of Pleasants and dis-
12 tricts of Pleasants county, respectively, which interest shall be 13 paid semi-annually, but in no event shall this levy be made
14 until the same has been authorized by a majority vote of the 15 voters of said county at the next general election.

Sec. 5. All acts or parts of acts inconsistent with the pro-
2 visions of this act are hereby repealed.
